Daymar College: Implementing a Values-Based Business Plan

with Mark A. Gabis, President

Moving from a legal career to career college ownership, Mark Gabis has worked hard to create a school group noted for its low volume, excellent service, and high values approach to education. p.1

Higher Education in the Global Market

with Douglas L. Becker, Laureate Education, Inc.

Bringing American style higher education to a global market takes years of learning to adapt to the local market and navigate the complex world of regulations in the respective countries. Now the leading international public education company, Laureate is enjoying the benefits of scale as they continue to expand as well as link their institutions together. p.8

Should YOUR School Be Considering...

Employment Practices Liability Insurance?
Directors & Officers Liability Insurance?
Educator's Legal Liability Insurance?

by Robert N. Kretzmer, Inner Harbour Insurance, Inc.

In today's legal environment, school owners, administrators and staff should consider Employment Practices Liability Insurance, Directors & Officers Liability Insurance, as well as Educator's Legal Liability Insurance, since all of these exposures are usually excluded under Commercial General Liability policies. p.21

Walking the Talk

At The Language Company, There's More to English
Than Tapes and Language Labs

with Brenda Robati, President

The Language Company serves as a linguistic bridge between East and West, providing English instruction in settings far removed from the sterility of the standard language lab. Operating from its own institutes and host campuses, the TLC model provides the flexibility needed to adapt to a changing market. p.33

The Toolbox Revisited

Paths to Degree Completion From High School Through College

by Clifford Adelman, U.S. Department of Education

Following on the earlier Tool Box research report, Adelman continues to demonstrate that academic intensity of the student's high school curriculum still counts more than anything else in pre-collegiate history in providing momentum toward completing a bachelor's degree. p.37

As We Go To Press:

Department of Education's "Dear Colleague" Letter Causes Some Initial Excitement and Concern Among Some Accreditors

Barth's letter initially produced some concern among national accrediting bodies, but once his intent was determined, it was clear that the letter was addressed to smaller accrediting bodies that do not currently have distance education within their scope. p.50
